

Jeffery A. Evans
Business Development

Education

Sinclair College, Dayton, Ohio – A.S.M.E.
ITT Technical Institute, Dayton, Ohio – HVAC Certification

Design, Construction and Performance Contracting

26 Years

Experience

- Jeff began his career as an HVAC designer for General Motor's projects.
- Spent 7 years working as a designer in the mechanical contracting business, then promoted to Project Manager which included the responsibilities of selling, engineering, estimating, managing design/build HVAC projects.
- Promoted in 1991 to V.P. General Manager, responsible for designing, planning, estimating and project managing of Energy Savings Performance Contracts.
- President of a regional HVAC company in the Dayton, Ohio market.
- Director of Energy Solutions for a national HVAC service organization.

Affiliations

Past President of the Dayton Chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, Air Conditioning and Engineers (ASHRAE)
Association of Energy Engineers (A.E.E.)

Performance Contracting Experience (Partial List)

Montgomery County, OH – H.B. 300 Campus Chiller Plant Project
Dayton Art Institute, Power House Project
Dalton City Schools, GA, District Wide Energy Improvements
Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio – H.B. 7 Energy Savings Performance Contract
Crestwood Local Schools, Detroit, MI – District Wide Guaranteed Savings Contract
LaGrange College, LaGrange, GA – Campus Wide Guaranteed Savings Contract
Darke County Commissioners, Greenville, OH – H.B. 300 Energy Savings Contract
Kings Local Schools, Cincinnati, OH – H.B. 264, Thermal Ice Storage System
Dayton International Airport, Dayton, OH – H.B. 300, Energy Savings Contract

Mr. Evans is currently working with performance contracting organizations developing opportunities in the Education and Government markets in Ohio.